Attendance

Creating a memorable production requires commitment. The success of your class and the quality of your presentation depend on you. We understand students become ill or the weather makes travel unsafe. Life happens ☺

We simply ask that you make dance a priority and be in attendance. Students who miss an excessive number of classes may be removed from the class choreography. We will not be able to refund your production fees as purchases and financial commitments are agreed to well before our productions. There is no way to recover our production fees once they've been spent. Thank you for understanding. ☺

See you in class!
